

How to compete at our recognized show without being a competing member of USEF or USDF

Attention all who like to show and are currently competing at Intro, training or 1st level dressage; Did you know you can experience a USEF/USDF recognize competition with higher level judges without all the extra fees? Here is your opportunity: the OVCTA Recognized Spring Dressage Show May 26th 2024:

You and your horse are exempt of all membership fees and neither of you need to be registered with the USDF or USEF. This is close to $150 savings if not more!

There are three Class options: Intro, Opportunity Training Level and Opportunity First Level.

Fees incurred: Intro – Class Fee ($40/class); office fee($55); Drug Fee ($23).

Opportunity: Class Fee($40/class); Office fee($55)

It's a good way to get a recognized show experience and save some money! The down side of this is that your scores will not count for any USDF/USEF future awards.
